

Homework #0

This homework is easy and is meant to get you started with network analysis. Although the homework will not be graded, it will still be taken into account for course participation. All questions and comments regarding the homework should be directed to Piazza.

Submission details

This homework is due on February 24th at 2:00pm, while late days expire on February 28th at 1:00pm. The homework must be submitted as a hard-copy in the submission box in front of R 2.49 and also as an electronic version to eUcilnica. It can be prepared in either English or Slovene and either written by hand or typed on a computer. The hard-copy should include (1) this cover sheet with filled out time of the submission and signed honor code, (2) short answers to the questions, which can also demand proofs, tables, plots, diagrams and other, and (3) a printout of all the code required to complete the exercises. The electronic submission should include only (1) answers to the questions in a single file and (2) all the code in a format of the specific programming language. Note that hard-copies will be graded, while electronic submissions will be used for plagiarism detection. The homework is considered submitted only when both versions have been submitted. Failing to include this honor code in the submission will result in 10% deduction. Failing to submit all the developed code to eUcilnica will result in 50% deduction.

Honor code

The students are strongly encouraged to discuss the homework with other classmates and form study groups. Yet, each student must then solve the homework by herself or himself without the help of others and should be able to redo the homework at a later time. In other words, the students are encouraged to collaborate, but should not copy from one another. Referring to any solutions obtained from classmates, course books, previous years, found online or other, is considered an honor code violation. Also, stating any part of the solutions in class or on Piazza is considered an honor code violation. Finally, failing to name the correct study group members, or filling out the wrong date or time of the submission, is also considered an honor code violation. Honor code violation will not be tolerated. Any student violating the honor code will be reported to faculty disciplinary committee and vice dean for education.
